Describe briefly (one or two pages) the project you propose to undertake, including your area of investigation, your purpose in investigating it and the ways your investigation will enhance your understanding of Women's Studies. Project descriptions should employ clear, economical prose; they should be typed, proofread, and neatly presented.

List any academic course work, research background, skills and interests relevant to your proposed project.

Submit a detailed budget. The success of your application will depend in significant part on the plausibility and specificity of your proposed budget. Please indicate whether you are also seeking funding from any other source, for example, the Mount Holyoke College Summer Research Fellowship.

Please address questions to genderstudies@mtholyoke.edu. Submit completed applications to Cynthia Meehan, Gender Studies, 109 Shattuck Hall or cmeehan@mtholyoke.edu.
