

The Department of German Studies
Mount Holyoke College
presents:

FRANK BEYER

Frank Beyer will read (in German) from his autobiography, Wenn der Wind sich dreht, which describes his life as one of the most famous and important German film directors. He will also discuss (in English and German) his films including the Oscar-nominated Jakob der Lügner (Jacob, the Liar).

October 23rd at 7:30 p.m.
New York Room
Mary Woolley Hall
Mount Holyoke College

Co-sponsored by the Department of German Studies at Smith College