

Department of German Studies

Internship, Fellowship, and Study-Abroad Symposium

Panel I: Internships, Fellowships, Stipends: What is out there?

What did students do in the past? How do I apply?

Ana Kniazeva (2010) - DAAD Ambassador and former study-abroad student on:
DAAD Stipends for German-speaking and non-German speaking students

Floriana Foarta (2011) - German Club President on:
Research Fellowship at the Chemistry Department at Aachen University, Germany

Annie Stovall (2011) - German and International Relations major on:
Internships at the U.S. State Department, Washington, D.C.

Gergana Karadzova (2012) - German and Russian major on:
Internships at the National Yiddish Book Center, Amherst

Panel II: Study-Abroad possibilities: What is out there?

What kind of financial support is available? What did students do in the past?

Joanne Picard - Dean of International Studies, McCulloch Center for Global Initiatives on:
German Study-Abroad Programs, Fellowships, and Stipends

Heather Socha (2010) - German major, English minor on:
Study-abroad experiences at the University of Leipzig, Germany

Catherine Bucciero (2011) - German minor on:
Study-abroad experiences within the 2009 Georgetown University summer program in Trier, Germany.

Sara Cochran (2011) - Politics major and German minor on:
Fellowships to study German within the Middlebury German summer-school

Friday, October 30, 2009

1:15 – 4:00 p.m.

Gamble Auditorium

Coffee and Cake to follow

Everybody Welcome!