

MOUNT HOLYOKESM

The Department of German Studies presents:

Landscapes of Remembrance and Oblivion:

Reflections of a Vanished State

A talk by Holger Teschke

Stefan Koppelkamm Berlin | Charité / Marie-Elisabeth-Lüders-Haus | 1991 | 2002

On the occasion of the 20th anniversary of the opening of the Berlin Wall and an exhibition ORTZEIT LOCAL TIME with works by the German photographer Stefan Koppelkamm at the Mount Holyoke College Art Museum, Visiting Professor Holger Teschke speaks about his experience during the peaceful revolution in the fall of 1989 and the current state of affairs in united Germany.

November 10, 2009

4:30 p.m.

Gamble Auditorium

Reception in the Hinchcliff Reception Hall, Mount Holyoke College Art Museum

Special Thanks to the Goethe-Institut Boston, Mount Holyoke College Art Museum, and Stefan Koppelkamm