

Emley Clogston Eldridge '32 Prize in Women's Studies

This fund, established in 1999 by David L. Eldridge, grandson of the late Emley Clogston Eldridge '32 as a tribute to his grandmother, will be awarded annually to a student "whose work has been an outstanding achievement in the field of Women's Studies."

Nominations may come from the student herself, other students, faculty, community activist, or community agency. A cash prize will be awarded.

Prizes will be awarded during the Gender Studies "At-Home" on Commencement Weekend 2008.

Deadline for the review of applications is MONDAY, MAY 5, 2008, but ongoing application submissions are encouraged. Please address questions to genderstudies@mtholyoke.edu. Submit completed applications to Cynthia Meehan (cmeehan), Sr. Administrative Assistant, Gender Studies, 109 Shattuck Hall.
