Paid Pro-Choice Campus Organizing Internship

The mission of NARAL Pro-Choice Massachusetts is to develop and sustain a grassroots constituency that uses the political process to guarantee every woman the right to make personal decisions regarding the full range of reproductive choices including preventing unintended pregnancy, bearing healthy children, and choosing safe, legal, and accessible abortion.

Paid Year-Long Internship Available for the 2008-09 School Year

NARAL Pro-Choice Massachusetts is seeking a dedicated pro-choice student to fill the position of NARAL Pro-Choice Massachusetts Campus Representative. The Campus Representative will act as a liaison between the organization and student body, as well as the organization and the school's community. NARAL Pro-Choice Massachusetts will provide organizing materials and supervisory support via regular phone calls, emails and occasional campus visits; however, the Campus Representative will mainly work independently on his/her campus and/or surrounding community.

Responsibilities

- Participate in the Campus Representative Training Program held in the organization's Boston office.
- Organize a campaign around one reproductive rights issue that is relevant to your campus and also relates to prevention of unintended pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted infections including HIV / AIDS. The campaign must include at least one event.
- Assist NARAL Pro-Choice Massachusetts in their efforts to promote specific pieces of pro-choice legislation or to oppose anti-choice attacks at the state level.
- Register students to vote in preparation for the 2008 election.
- Table at five campus and/or community events throughout the school year in order to recruit people to sign up for our email alerts (Choice Action Network).
- Work in coalition with other campus or community organizations in order to engage diverse populations.
- Participate in national days of action.
- Participate in regular supervisory phone calls with contact at NARAL Pro-Choice Massachusetts.
- Complete monthly forms to track campus organizing progress.
- Assist in recruiting and training your replacement at the close of the school year.

Qualifications

- A commitment to reproductive rights and NARAL Pro-Choice Massachusetts' mission
- A commitment to diversity
- An interest in student life and an understanding of the campus's political climate
- Excellent communication skills, including writing and public speaking
- The ability to work independently with regular (but long distance) supervision
- A willingness to learn, flexibility, and reliability

Time Commitment/Compensation

- 8-12 hours per week
- Projects may require evening and weekend availability
- $100 monthly stipend and course credit available

Applications are due no later than Friday, August 22nd, but students are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.
