

McCulloch Center for Global Initiatives

APPLICATION FOR 2008 SUMMER PROGRAM IN BEIJING

Completed applications for the 2008 summer program in Beijing are due in the McCulloch Center for Global Initiatives by February 15, 2008. In addition to this application form, all students must submit a waiver of liability form required for all programs abroad (available from the MCGI website at <http://www.mtholyoke.edu/global/assets/CGI/MHCIF082207.pdf>). Students will be notified of the results of their application within about two weeks of the deadline, and accepted students will be required to pay a deposit to hold their place on the program.

Briefly state why you wish to participate in the summer program in Beijing (you may attach an additional/separate sheet).

Please list courses in Chinese language that you have taken at Mount Holyoke or elsewhere, including courses that you are taking in Spring 2008.

If you have not completed at least one year of Chinese in college but have studied Chinese elsewhere, briefly describe your previous experience with Chinese. You must also consult directly with Prof. Wang so that she may determine whether you are at the appropriate level for the program.

For students not enrolled at MHC: In addition to this form and the required Waiver of Liability, you must submit:

- ◆ a letter of recommendation from your current or most recent teacher of Chinese
- ◆ an official transcript from your home institution (including grades for Fall semester 2007)

For MHC students only:

- ◆ Provide the name of a faculty member at Mount Holyoke with whom you have discussed your interest in the program and who has agreed to serve as a reference for you (you do not need to ask her/him to send in a written recommendation):

- ◆ Mount Holyoke offers a limited amount of financial aid for this program (available only to Mount Holyoke students).

Do you wish to be considered for funding from MHC?                      Yes     No

Do you currently receive need-based financial aid from MHC?                      Yes     No

How much can you contribute toward the program fee? _____

If there are any special financial considerations that you would like us to take into account, please attach a brief description.

Funding available from Mount Holyoke is limited, and students should not assume that they will receive an award, or that any award offered will be for the full amount they need. Students who are eligible for the national Freeman-ASIA program must also apply to the national program. Applications for summer 2008 are due March 5, 2008. Last year, at least five of the summer program participants applied for, and received, Freeman-ASIA awards of $3,000 each. See <http://www.iie.org/freeman-asia> for details, and indicate below whether you are eligible to apply.

Are you eligible and will you apply for the national Freeman-ASIA award?                      Yes     No
