The Center for the Environment presents

BILL MCKIBBEN

7:30 PM, April 2, 2009, Hooker Auditorium,
Clapp Laboratory, Mount Holyoke College

SPONSORED BY: Office of the President, Department of Economics, Environmental Studies, the Kestrel Trust, and Odyssey Bookshop

ALSO ATTEND: A reading and book signing by author Amy Seidl for her new release entitled, Early Spring: An Ecologist and Her Children Wake to a Warming World (Foreword by Bill McKibben).

MONDAY APRIL 6, 7:30 PM, GAMBLE AUDITORIUM, ART MUSEUM

BILL MCKIBBEN brings his insightful understanding and analysis of community growth, global climate change, and urgency for political action to Mount Holyoke College and the Five College community. Join us for an inspirational evening with one of our most highly regarded environmental leaders, followed by a community discussion of the actions we can embark upon.

In addition to serving as the director of the Middlebury College Fellowships in environmental journalism, McKibben has written numerous books, including Deep Economy, The End of Nature, and Wandering Home.

He is a frequent contributor to the New York Times, the Atlantic Monthly, Harper's, Orion, Rolling Stone, and Outside. Bill has been awarded Guggenheim and Lyndhurst Fellowships and won the Lannan Prize for nonfiction writing in 2000.
