

An Evening with Singer/Songwriter

Erica Wheeler

Erica Wheeler is an award-winning singer/songwriter and national touring artist. Erica has five critically acclaimed recordings to her credit.

She has facilitated "The Soulful Landscape" writing workshop and offered keynote concerts at conferences and events across the country, including the National Land Trust Annual Rally, The Forest Guild Annual Meeting, Antioch New England Graduate School, The Walden Woods Institute, and more.

Her extensive background in the performing arts, combined with her life-long passion for environmental studies, cultural history and spirituality provide a unique and transformative experience.

For More info on Erica visit: WWW.ERICAWHEELER.COM

For information on the event:
Ph: 413-538-3091
www.mtholyoke.edu/ce
center-environment@mtholyoke.edu

"Insightful, imaginative songs...her imagery can nail down relationships in a single verse." The Washington Post

"Her voice and lyrics are beautifully expressive....a Major Talent."
The Boston Herald

Mount Holyoke College
Blanchard Campus Center,
Great Room
Tuesday, November 10, 7:30 p.m.

Free and Open to the Public

Co-Sponsored by: Center for the Environment, Environmental Studies Program, and the Office of Student Programs