DIGITAL IMAGE CONDITIONS OF USE

PRESERVATION: Because preservation of its materials is a paramount concern, Archives and Special Collections reserves the right to decline to digitize materials, or to limit the amount of material that can be safely digitized.

COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS: The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States, code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

PURPOSE OF USE: Researchers must stipulate how the collections requested will be used. Without that information, this request cannot be filled. Use of any copies must be only for the purpose stated here. If you later wish to make a different or additional use of these materials (particularly if you will be publishing or exhibiting them), you will need to contact Archives and Special Collections for permission.

Please describe purpose of use (if for a class, write course number and name of instructor):

PUBLICATION OR PUBLIC EXHIBITION USE: Permission to use digitized materials from the Mount Holyoke College Archives and Special Collections for publication or public exhibition must be obtained by completing a separate permission form.

I understand and agree to the above copyright statement and will only use the images as I have noted above. I also understand it is my responsibility to determine who owns the copyright of these materials unless otherwise noted:
