What you should do in your First Year To Prepare for Law School:

- ✓ Take courses in your area of interest that challenge you to read, think, and write analytically
- ✓ Do an internship this summer
- ✓ Talk to a few lawyers about the work they do
- ✓ Go to alumnae panels on which lawyers are speaking
- ✓ Familiarize yourself with the format of the LSAT
- ✓ Get to know your professors and make yourself known to them
- ✓ Read the newspaper every day
- ✓ Choose a law related news story and follow it over a period of time
- ✓ Understand the basics of the law school application process
- ✓ Reflect on your values, skills, and interests, and how you would like to incorporate them (eventually!) into your professional life
- ✓ Get involved in a cause you feel passionate about
- ✓ Do well in your classes
