THE CRITICAL SOCIAL THOUGHT PROGRAM
CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO A TALK BY

KAVITA DATLA
Assistant Professor of History, MHC

“Language and Politics in Colonial India”

Thursday, October 28
4:15-5:30 p.m
Shattuck, Cassani Lounge

(For information about the CST major, join CST majors and faculty for a free lunch on Oct. 28th at 12:15-1:15 in Blanchard 318)

Kavita Datla is a history professor at MHC. Some of her courses include: Modern South Asia and History, Religion and Politics in Modern India. She also teaches courses on South Asia, the British Empire and the Indian Ocean World. Professor’s Datla’s research interests include: negotiations over language, education, and religion in the late 19th century and early 20th century South Asia.