Diversity Resources for Study Abroad

AllAbroad.us
allabroad.us/
“Helping students from diverse backgrounds find study abroad resources and obtain advice from study abroad mentors.” Resources, advice, and student stories.

Diversity Abroad
diversityabroad.com “Diversity Abroad connects talented diverse and underrepresented students and graduates to international education and career opportunities that prepare them for leadership in an interconnected world.” Resources, advice, and student stories.

IES Diversity Resources
iesabroad.org/study-abroad/about/diversity-resources Resources, blog posts, and videos for:
- Students with Disabilities
- Financially Challenged Students
- First-Generation College Students
- Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and Questioning Students
- Non-Traditional Majors
- Students of Color/Religious Ethnicity

Michigan State University
studyabroad.isp.msu.edu/whocanstudyabroad/“Anyone Can Study Abroad” includes articles and resources on the following topics:
- Study Abroad on a Budget
- Race and Ethnicity
- Sex and Gender
- Students with Disabilities
- Non-US Citizens

Mobility International
miusa.org/
Travel advice and resources for individuals with disabilities.

NAFSA: Association of International Educators
rainbowsig.org/us-students-abroad/
Rainbow Special Interests Group offers advice, resources, and student stories for and by gay, lesbian, bi-sexual, and transgendered students abroad.
National Center for Transgender Equality transequality.org/issues/travel Advice and resources for transgender people traveling abroad.

PLATO Project for Learning Abroad, Training, and Outreach globaled.us/plato/resources.html#1 Plato is an “integrated study abroad training, certification, and diversity outreach program which provides comprehensive support resources for study abroad to all U.S. college and university students—with special support for underrepresented students.” Topics include:
  - Underrepresented Students
  - African-American Students
  - Asian/Pacific Islander Students
  - Hispanic/Latino students
  - Native-American students

Seattle University Education Abroad
seattleu.edu/abroad/diversity/
Section on Diversity Abroad Includes articles and resources on these topics:
  - Disability
  - Gender
  - LGBTQ and Sexual Orientation
  - Race
  - Religion

Transitions Abroad Web Magazine
transitionsabroad.com/
Travel resource for “meaningful work, living, and study abroad.” Sections on “Study Abroad” and “Travel Abroad” include resources and stories on disability travel, women travelers, and persons of color abroad.

US Department of State
travel.state.gov/content/studentsabroad/en/smart-travel.html
Webpage on “Students Abroad” contains a wealth of information about individual countries, health and safety, studying abroad, living abroad, etc., including resources for women travelers, LGBT travelers, and travelers with disabilities.