All transfer work is subject to final evaluation and approval by the Registrar. Before enrolling in course work at other institutions, students should be sure to review the policies governing transfer credit summarized on the Registrar's Office website. Signatures below do not guarantee a course is transferable for credit but do dictate how it will be applied if deemed transferable.

Please check applicable boxes below. Department/program chair approval is required for everything except for Multicultural Perspectives permission. Approval from the Dean of Studies is required to have a non-MHC course fulfill the Multicultural Perspectives requirement.
